2. Agent for the Seller. The Licensee's company is working as an agent for the Property Seller and owes primary loyalty to the Seller. Even if the licensee is working with a prospective Buyer to locate property for sale, rent, or lease, the licensee and licensee's company are legally bound to work in the best interests of any Property Owners whose Property is shown to this prospective Buyer. An agency relationship of this type cannot, by law, be established without a written agency agreement.
3. Designated Agent for the Seller. The individual licensee that has been assigned by the Managing Broker and is working as an agent for the Seller or Property Owner in this consumer's prospective transaction, to the exclusion of all other licensees in the company. Even if someone else in the licensee's company represents a possible Buyer for this Seller's Property, the Designated Agent for the Seller shall continue to work as an advocate for the best interests of the Seller or Property Owner. An agency relationship of this type cannot, by law, be established without a written agency agreement.
4. Facilitator / Transaction Broker (not an agent for either party). The licensee is not working as an agent for either party in this consumer's prospective transaction. A Facilitator may advise either or both of the parties to a transaction but cannot be considered a representative or advocate of either party. "Transaction Broker" may be used synonymously with, or in lieu of, "Facilitator" as used in any disclosures, forms or agreements. [By law, any Licensee or company who has not entered into a written agency agreement with either party in the transaction is considered a Facilitator or Transaction Broker until such time as an agency agreement is established.]
5. Dual agency. The licensee has agreements to provide services as an agent to more than one (1) party in a specific transaction and in which the interests of such parties are adverse. This agency status may only be employed upon full disclosure to each party and with each party's informed consent.

- 210 6. Adverse Facts. “Adverse Facts” means conditions or occurrences generally recognized by competent licensees
211 that have a negative impact on the value of the real estate, significantly reduce the structural integrity of 212 improvements to real property or present a significant health risk to occupants of the property.
- 213 7. Confidentiality. By law, every licensee is obligated to protect some information as confidential. This includes 214 any information revealed by a consumer which may be helpful to the other party IF it was revealed by the 215 consumer BEFORE the licensee disclosed any agency relationship with that other party. AFTER the licensee
216 discloses that licensee has an agency relationship with another party, any such information which the consumer
217 THEN reveals must be passed on by the licensee to that other party.

218 B. Duties owed to all Parties to a Transaction.

- 223 2. To disclose to each party to the transaction any Adverse Facts of which licensee has actual notice or knowledge.
- 224 3. To maintain for each party in a transaction the confidentiality of any information obtained by a licensee prior to 225 disclosure to all parties of a written agency agreement entered into by the licensee to represent either or both 226 parties in the transaction. This duty of confidentiality extends to any information which the party would 227 reasonably expect to be held in confidence, except for information which the party has authorized for disclosure
228 or information required by law to be disclosed. This duty survives both the subsequent establishment of an agency
229 relationship and the closing of the transaction.
- 230 4. To provide services to each party to the transaction with honesty and good faith.
- 231 5. To disclose to each party to the transaction timely and accurate information regarding market conditions that 232 might affect such transaction only when such information is available through public records and when such 233 information is requested by a party.

239 organization or business entity in which the licensee has an interest or from whom the licensee may receive

- 248 2. Be loyal to the interests of the client. Licensee must place the interests of the client before all others in negotiation
249 of a transaction and in other activities, except where such loyalty/duty would violate licensee’s duties to a
250 customer in the transaction; and

252 the client by:

The Facilitator status shall only last until any transaction or contemplated transaction in which the parties are all represented by the Facilitator is resolved (either because the transaction is closed or contemplated transaction between the parties is terminated or not accepted and no further negotiations occur between the parties). At that time, the Broker and Listing Licensee shall immediately revert back to their status as Agent for the Seller.
